

Get Real at the Opening Intensive

You have just been given one of the most precious gifts that anyone could ever give you! Scholarship tuition to attend the Opening Intensive 5 day retreat!

It takes years to drift away from living the life you once dreamed of. Years to develop that gnawing feeling that you are disconnected from what you are meant to be, what you are meant to do, how you are meant to live. And it takes only 5 days at the Opening Intensive to shake off the dead weight of old, false beliefs – ideas from others about how and who you are supposed to be. With the Opening Intensives intriguingly simple practices, you will tap into your own authenticity and creativity and emerge re-energized and liberated from old patterns of belief that no longer serve you. This is your Life.

The Opening 5 day event will return you to it.
